Knocked Into a Cocked Hat,

We were sitting on the veranda of a hotel at Niagara Falls, writes a New York Sun contributor, when I noticed the man on my right looking sharply at the man on my left, and presently he got up in an excited way and walked about. After a bit he halted before the other man and asked:

"Isn't your name Grabam?" "Yes, sir," was the prompt reply.

Well?" "Prepare to be licked! My time has come at last!"

He made a dive for the old pedagogue, but the latter evaded him, made a halfturn and hit him on the jaw, and Godkin went over a chair in a heap. Then the whilom schoolmaster piled onto him and licked him until he cried "Enough." and it didn't take him over three minuses to do it. Then he retired to get on another collar and replace some buttons, and I helped Godkin up and ob-

A Gawa Weighing Three Ounces. About the year 1700 a fair young bride in the village now known as New Haven were a dainty costume of white. The gown was cut low in the neek and was sleeveless. The dress was of light and filmy texture, and weighed but about three ounces. It has been handed down from generation to generation, until at last it has come into possession of a Danbury lady. The dress is remarkably well preserved and is extremely valuable, both from its age and the beauty of embroideries with which it is covered. The design of the trimming is prettily worked in the coarse linen thread so

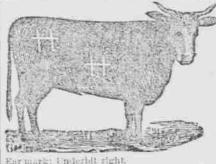

A Singular Ewiss Custom-
